A TYPICAL DAY

In pursuing the theme of our yearbaak, Laoking At Southbridge High, we spent a day browsing through the halls. Loaking here and there, we found the typical student in the gymnasium, in the cafeteria, in the library, everywhere and anywhere.

FOREWORD

We the closs of 1964, hove selected "Looking ot Southbridge High School" os the theme of our yeorbook. We believe thot before we con step out in the rood of life, we must hove o complete understonding of where we hove been ond whot we hove occomplished. For this sole reoson, then, we offer this opportunity to reflect on the life in our school community ond to meditote on the ideols our school represents.

DEDICATION TO OUR CLASS ADVISORS

We the class of 1964 gratefully dedicate this yearbook to aur closs advisars, Mr. John Conlon, and Mr. Arthur Metras.

It has been with unfaltering interest ond devation that these men hove sought to guide our class. Thraugh their understonding ond encouragement, we as a class, have made continued stride thraughout our high schaal careers. In deepest oppreciatian for their efforts, we hape ta maintain the standards they have set far us.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF SERVICE

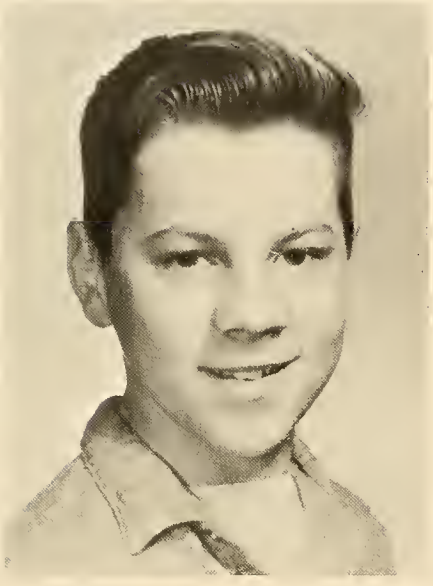
MISS FRANCES TROY

Teachers such as Miss Frances Troy have helped ta mold students into men and wamen. By their guidance and understanding, students are assured af a fruitful future.

It is mare than a teacher; it is a well-liked human being, who is leaving aur partals to embark upon a life of well deserved rest.

It is with utmost respect and admiratian that we acknawledge Miss Troy far her many years of devoted service.

IN MEMORIAM



ERNEST VEILLETT

To all wha knew him, Ernie wos o true friend. Although he wos token from us and wos nat able to finish his high schaal days with us, we have not fargatten him. Especially thraughaut this impartont year, he will be with us in thought and memory.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

35TH PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

BIRTH MAY 29, 1917

INAUGURATION JANUARY 20, 1961

DEATH NOVEMBER 22, 1963

Thraughaut aur high schaal career it has been the guiding hand af aur belaved late president that has led aur cauntry dawn the raad ta success. His wisdam, kindness and understanding have been felt by the mast elite and the humblest alike.

It was with great campassian that we learned af his untimely death an that bleak Friday in Navember.

Until the mament when we disbelievingly heard af the news, we had never knawn the true meaning af the ward assassinatian.

The sudden impact af this tragedy braught variaus reactians, but in the end we all knew that we must act as the Americans he wauld have wanted us ta be. We knew it was nat a time far selfish pity, but rather we knew it was a time ta realize aur fartune in having knawn him.

Yes, the warld certainly was made better by his passing thraugh it. His name will remain a hallawed memary at S.H.S., in Massachusetts, and thraughaut the warld farever.

FRESHMAN HISTORY

As graduating seniors, it is only natural that we may warmly recall our yesteryears spent in high school.

We embarked upon the road through high school as timid freshmen when we first walked through the portals of Mary E. Wells High.

Freshman Class officers were President, Donald Ferron; Vice-President, Marsha Berthioume; Treasurer, Steve Ashton; and Secretary, Lois Lemire.

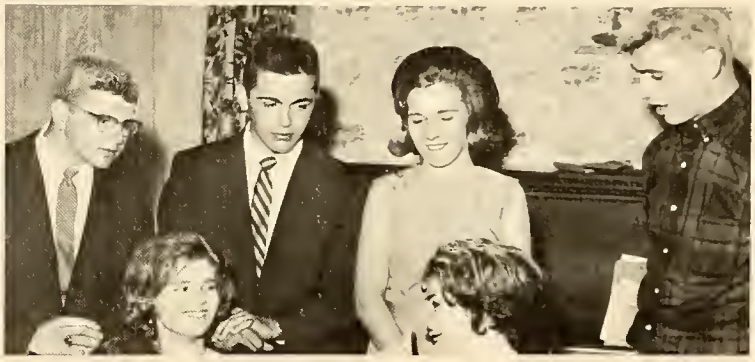
We had now become young adults and were on our way toward new and better things.

SOPHOMORE HISTORY

As newly promoted sophomores and well on the pathway to our goal, graduation, we moved to our beautiful new location. Southbridge High School. Cole Trade and Wells High became one and the same at our new school on Cole Avenue.

This year was also marked by two other events. First of all we were threatened by the Bomb Scare. Then we were all grieved by the news of the death of our beloved principal, Dr. James Robertson.

President Donald Ferron, Vice-President Suzanne Bastien, Treasurer James Kane, and Secretary Darlene LaFortune — our class officers — did a fine job in our fine new school.



JUNIOR HISTORY

Our Junior yeor begon with the election of closs officers. They included Vincent Sinni, President; Phyllis Collette, Vice-President; Thomos Borghesi, Treosurer; ond Judy Kowolski, Secretary.

We officiolly became upperclassmen when we donned our shiny, new class rings.

Our class ploy — YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU — and a successful prom — ON A TROPIC ISLAND — added the topping to o wonderful yeor.

The ring committee included Bobby Blois, Lorraine Brousseau, Donno Kokoszko, Mary Liro and Carmine Torquinio.

Among the mony hord workers who devoted their time ond service to prom preporotions were Dorianne Sandman, Bobby Golante, Carol Bednorz, Stonley Cooper, Dorlene Lafortune, Natalie Lovoie, Zygmunt Saletnik, Ray Ouellette, and the closs officers.

SENIOR HISTORY

Leading us in this, our final, year of high school were our class officers — Donald Ferron, President; Nancy Swiocki, Vice-President; Tammy Borghesi, Treasurer; and Darionne Sandman, Secretary.

"Senioritis" took hold of our first major event, the Freshman Reception, and continued to spread rapidly throughout the year. Other events included our first REAL Victory Dance in four years and our Senior Play — THE BOARDING HOUSE REACH.

Various important committees were organized throughout the year. The color committee included Jane Lombardi, Jane Sherry and William Dunn. The flower committee included Patricia Caccio, Paula Billis and David Saucier. The motto committee included Elizabeth Berry, Janice Tiberii and John Yannacci. The class officers comprised the Cap & Gown Committee and the Announcements Committee.

Of course, the year was highlighted with various other graduation activities, as we prepared to leave our hallowed halls forever.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1964

We, the class of 1964, the first class to attend the World's Fair, do solemnly and proudly bestow the following bequests upon our heart-broken followers:

To Mr. Desroches we leave our sincere thanks and our pledged devotion for four years of professional guidance and encouragement in making our high school years successful. As a token of our appreciation we leave him a set of mink covers for his golf clubs.

To Mr. Conlon and Mr. Metras, our class advisors, who have so willingly given of their time and energy in all our endeavors, we leave our sincere appreciation for their enthusiastic assistance along with 160 cancelled tickets to the World's Fair and four empty busses.

To our home-room teachers who have put up with our many antics and jokes we leave the following: To Mr. Conlon a gold-plated compass; to Mr. Jordan a portable blackboard and a box of yellow chalk; to Mr. Young no more clumsy seniors; to Miss Fitzgerald a mink.

At noon we stopped for lunch at John Peters' famous Greek Restaurant; Stanley Cooper is his chief accountant.

Jeanne Boudreau's art work decorates the Parisian center.

Earl Stypulkowski is the Head Golumpki taster at Dennis Kroll's Polish Pavillion.

Zygmunt Saletnik, the new Olympic Champion, is putting on a weight-lifting exhibition.

Terry Baker, the modern Jack Benny, heads the distinguished entertainment program. Steve Clarke, Academy Award Winner for the best actor, appears on the program along with Jane Desrosiers, character actress. Charles S. Chase is the business manager.

Robert Corriveau is the great D.J. in the R.C.U. Radio Exhibit.

In the Ballroom Doreen Renaud demonstrates her nationally famous dance, The Satellite Swing.

Norma Gillespie is on the "Ted Mack Amateur Show" as the singing English teacher.

On a new business program, James Damian and Bryan LeBlanc, big business tycoons, tell their theories about how to become a millionaire in three easy steps.

Among the representatives of the sports world for the U.S. are Tim Hughes, newly elected member of the Baseball Hall of Fame; James Kane, member of Football Hall of Fame; Louis Malley, the star clown of the Globetrotters; Rodney Pouliot, famous Little League coach whose team made history by defeating the New York Yankees; Douglas Filo the coach of the New York Gaints with his assistant, Robert Palmerino; and Linda Sinni, famed biologist, captain of the world's champion softball team.

Many Southbridge businessmen are actively involved in the World's Fair.

Robert Blais is known for his Blais chain of Supermarkets in the New England section and Roland Giguere for his cabinet-making shop representing Old Sturbridge Village.

Francis Allard owns a fleet of motor busses, customized by Raymond Ouelette, making record trips from all parts of the country to New York. Paul Berthiaume is one of his best drivers, having had experience in grabbing the wheel from his brothers. Ronald Giroux, with his experience with the Dept. of Motor Vehicles, is a lawyer in charge of any accident.

Eugene Daigneault, now manager at Dan's Amoco Station, donates free gas one day a week to busses going from Southbridge. Dennis Gay's fifteen children, trained by Lionel Cournoyer and William Julian, physical education directors at the Southbridge Y.M.C.A., gave a demostration from the roof of the bus, stopping all bystanders.

William Moran, world's most famous wig maker, is specializing in wigs made of red hair.

Daniel McKinstry and his partner, Smoky the Bear, renowned forest rangers, are running around the Fair, stamping out cigarette butts. Occasionally they talk to John Jenkins, the celebrated forest ranger who alerted Michael Elias so he extinguished the catastrophic fire at Yellowstone Park. The antics of Danny and Smoky fascinate the six daughters of Paulette Rivers and her husband, as well as social worker, Diane Marinelli; Patricia Coccia, the star in the top Broadway musical, Springtime, Germaine Despres, the fearless white lady hunter who has just completed a chain of beauty salons in the deepest heart of Africa, and Cathy Earnest, featuring her prize-winning bald-headed fashion.

Patricia Jowett is now top buyer for the Way-Out Dress Shop on Mars.

Darlene Lafortune, a noted physical therapist, demostrates the use of whirlpool baths.

Congratulations

You have a right to be proud of yourself. Your graduation from high school represents a significant achievement. The knowledge you've acquired, the skills you've learned, your diligence and effort will all serve to enrich your life and extend your personal horizons.

As you embark upon new careers — or go on to higher learning — we wish to express our congratulations to you, and to extend our sincere best wishes for success and happiness in the years ahead.
